The most qualitative traffic on the labour market

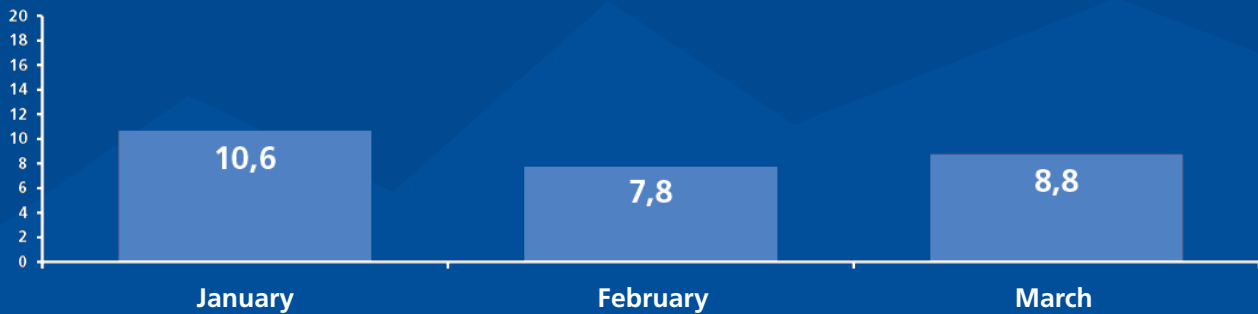

Many competitors are primarily concerned by showing high statistics, which means less visibility for the customers. At StepStone we do things differently: quality comes before quantity. This is how we ensure that your jobs gets the needed visibility. And this strategy pays off: at StepStone, we deliver more visitors per job than our main competitors.

New Alert E-mail benefits from artificial intelligence

The Alert E-mail is an automatic email service which sends a list of customised jobs to our subscribers every day. The jobs are not only based on the candidate's criteria. StepStone now also analyses his search behaviour on our website.

Thanks to the use of artificial intelligence, the proposed jobs in the Alert Emails closely match the candidates. As a result, we now receive 33% more applications than with the previous version of the Alert E-mail.

Job Agent subscribers
350.160

New Job Agents

StepStone partners

Your are posting a job on StepStone? Then your ad is also automatically posted on more than 50 websites without extra cost.

We select our partners carefully based of their reputation and the quality of the traffic they generate. We strive for a wide range of partners in specific job categories, sectors and regions.

International recruitment

The international recruitment process can be a complex task that requires a great deal of time, resources, and expertise.

- Time: locate, contact and negotiate with people in different time zones.
- Costly: multiple invoices and currencies, volatile exchange rates and expensive wire transfers.
- Difficult: cultural and language barriers, little flexibility for companies' dynamic international hiring needs.

The Network makes global hiring easy by offering a consolidated recruitment process in more than 130 countries that gives companies the flexibility and savings they need.

StepStone is partner and founding member of The Network – Global leader in online recruitment
